Choral Group To Present Yule Program

A program of Christmas music will be presented by Los Cancioneros on Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m. in Malaga Cove Auditorium. Sponsored by the Palos Verdes Community Arts group, the program is a holiday tradition in this area.

The "Brazilian Psalm" by Jean Berger and Bach's "Magnificat" will, in company with the traditional Christmas carols, provide Peninsula families with a musical start to the holiday season. A choral version of Clement Moore's "Night Before Christmas" will end the program.

This will be the first major concert this year by Los Cancioneros (The Singers), one of the outstanding cultural assets in the Southland.

The community choral group of 40 members is directed by Lyle Heck, well-known as a composer-conductor and soloist.

Church Choir To Entertain

"Christmas Tide" will be the first sermon of the Advent season Sunday at the Seaside Community Church, 230th Street and Ocean Avenue.

The Chancel choir will herald the Advent season with the special Christmas music of "The Great Day of the Lord is Near," by George C. Martin, and "A Medley of Christmas Carols," by Rosario Bourdon. They will be accompanied by Mrs. William Parker at the organ.

This will be the first appearance of the choir in new robes which were purchased through the combined efforts of all the church organizations and special donations.

During the service, new members will be received into the congregation and baptism held. Church school and adult seminar will be held at 8:45 and worship service at 10 a.m.

Timmy's picture is currently appearing on a special letter being distributed to certain residents in this area.
